Here are 9 Summer Faith Builders for Catholic Families to use as family activities. Fancy trips and high-tech gadgets are not required make family memories. Some of the best memories occur during "down time," when you can have quiet conversations about family and faith. Encourage your children to share thoughts about how you can spend time together. Use the following questions as a springboard for insightful conversations: "What family times are most special to you, and why? What do you wish we did more of together? How can we demonstrate our faith in God during these times together? Why does Jesus like us to spend time with him?"

- 1. Nature Hunt – For younger children, make picture-based checklists of things found in nature, and go outside to find each item listed. Children can mark off the items with a pencil. Afterward, talk about what you noticed about God's creation.

Then take some time to praise God together for making all the things you found.

2. Express Yourself – Use sidewalk chalk to declare your love for one another and for God. Fill your driveway or sidewalk with special messages, family “portraits,” and short Bible passages.
3. Swim, Jonah, Swim! – If your kids are good swimmers, play a game of Tag. The person who is ‘It’ is the Big Fish and tries to tag someone else. Afterward, talk about Jonah and why it is important to obey and follow God.
4. Go for “Some More” – Set out ingredients for s’mores and make them together, assembly-line fashion. As you eat, ask: “When has God done ‘some more’ for you? Why do you think God wants us to do ‘some more’ for others?”
5. Let It Shine – Place floating candles in a kiddies pool, and then use squirt guns to try to extinguish the candles. Talk about how we can shine our light for God, no matter what tries to put it out.
6. Come to the Water – Experience Jesus’ forgiveness by having family members stretch out their hands and think about anything they need to confess to God. Pour some water from a bucket onto all the outstretched hands, and then gently dry them with a towel. Pray together, thanking Jesus for always forgiving us.
7. Bubblin’ Over – On a sidewalk (or tarp), place plastic bowls of bubble solution mixed with washable paint. Give each family member a straw to blow bubbles in the mixtures. Then place paper atop the colored bubbles to create designs. When dry, fold the papers in half to make cards, and write the message “God’s love is bubbling over for you” on the outside. Give the cards to people who need encouragement this summer.
8. Seed, Seed, Grow! – Play a game similar to Duck, Duck, Goose. The person who walks around the circle is the Gardener and carries a full watering can. He or she taps heads and says “seed”—until sprinkling someone’s head with water and saying “grow.” Afterward, talk about the parable of the growing seed (Mark 4:26–29).
9. Visit a Shrine – There is one at Mundare and at Skaro at the junction of secondary hwy 831 and hwy 45.
10. Pray the rosary more often. Try praying in the car as you travel during the summer.

This is some good DOG advice! If a dog was the teacher you would learn stuff like:

- When loved ones come home, always run to greet them.
- Never pass up the opportunity to go for a joyride.
- Allow the experience of fresh air and the wind in your face to be pure ecstasy.
- When it is in your best interest, practice obedience.
- Let others know when they have invaded your territory.
- Take naps.
- Stretch before rising.
- Run, romp, and play daily.
- Thrive on attention and let people touch you.
- Avoid biting when a simple growl will do.
- On warm days, stop to lie on your back on the grass.
- On hot days, drink lots of water and lie under a shady tree.
- When you are happy, dance around and wag your entire body.
- No matter how often you are scolded, do not buy into the guilt thing and pout ... run right back and make friends.
- Delight in the simple joy of a long walk.
- Eat with gusto and enthusiasm. Stop when you have had enough.
- Be loyal. Never pretend to be something you are not.
- If what you want lies buried, dig until you find it.
- When someone is having a bad day, be silent, sit close by and nuzzle them gently.

Paddy was in New York he was patiently waiting and watching the traffic cop on a busy street crossing. The cop stopped the flow of traffic and shouted, 'Okay, pedestrians.' Then he would allow the traffic to pass.

He had done this several times, and Paddy still stood on the sidewalk.

After the cop had shouted, 'Pedestrians!' for the tenth time, Paddy went over to him and said, 'Is it not about time ye let the Catholics across?'
