Papal Prayer Intention for April – For the use of the new technologies
Let us pray that the use of the new technologies will not replace human relationships, will respect the dignity of the person, and will help us face the crises of our times.

Pro-life Prayer Intention for April 6, 2025

Lord, give us the courage to stand for life by instructing the ignorant and admonishing sinners who fight to destroy life. But, like Jesus, let us not cast stones. Instead, like Him, let us help those who have sinned to find and stay on a better path.

Medjugorje Message, March 25, 2025

"Dear children, in this time of grace when you are called to conversion, I am encouraging you, little children: offer me your prayers, sufferings and tears for conversion of hearts that are far from the Heart of my Son Jesus. Pray with me, because, little children, without God you do not have a future or eternal life. I love you, but I cannot help you without you; therefore, say 'yes' to God. Thank you for having responded to my call."

STEWARDSHIP

"Stewardship isn't a subcategory of the Christian life. Stewardship is the Christian life. After all, what is stewardship except that God has entrusted to us life, time, talents, money, possessions, family, and his grace? In each case, he evaluates how we regard what he has entrusted to us and what we do with it".

Gardening Group Planning

Spring is at the door with an opportunity to share your gifts with our church! The garden spaces offer wonderful potential for new growth and beauty.

Our gardening group is open to all parishioners and even friends from outside. We will have a brief meeting on Sunday, April 13 (Palm Sunday) in the vestibule after the 11:00 liturgy. The purpose of this meeting is to see what skills and human capital we have available, to establish common expectations, and to discuss which priorities to focus on this year.

Optionally, there is a form you can fill out to express your interest. This will help us know your intentions, even if you cannot attend this meeting. https://tinyurl.com/StBasilGarden2025

If you have any questions before the meeting, you can reach out to Brian at brian.greening@hotmail.com; call Charlotte Martynuik at 780-433-2692 (no voicemail); or contact the parish office at 780-434-8010. Let's unearth the buried talent we were given.

You may make your cheque payable to St. Basil's Parish using the church convenience envelopes provided in the church. You may also e-transfer your donation to the parish.

Please indicate "Newcomers Committee" on your envelope and on your e-transfer. Tax receipts will be issued for 2024 and mailed in the beginning of 2025.

Thank you in advance for your kindness. God loves a cheerful giver!

Saint Mary of Egypt

The Fifth Sunday of Great the Church dedicates to St. Mary of Egypt. St. Mary was born in Egypt, and at age twelve she left her parents' home to go to Alexandria, where she spent the following seventeen years living sinfully and carelessly. One day, she joined a crowd of Christian pilgrims traveling to the Holy Land of Jerusalem. Once they reached the city, they went to the Church of the Resurrection. To her surprise, St. Mary saw that, even though all the other pilgrims were able to enter the church, an invisible force was holding her back. Realizing that the impurity of her life was preventing her from entering the church, she greatly repented and prayed to the Blessed Virgin Mary to let her in, promising to change her way of life. Immediately she felt that the invisible wall had disappeared, and with tears she entered the Church and venerated the Holy Cross. Then the BVM instructed St. Mary to go to a faraway place, crossing the River Jordan.

St. Mary obeyed. She walked all the way to the River Jordan, crossed it, and, from that time on, lived ascetically in the desert for forty-seven years, without ever meeting another person. After all these years, a holy elder called Zosimas visited the desert. There, he met St. Mary who told him her story and asked him to return the following year bringing Holy Communion for her. St. Zosimas did so, and when he had reached the Jordan, he saw St. Mary walking on the river waters toward him.

St. Mary received Holy Communion and instructed St. Zosimas to come back the following year. St. Zosimas returned and found St. Mary's body stretched on the ground. An inscription on the ground nearby let him know that the Saint fell asleep in the Lord after receiving Communion that one time. She was asking St. Zosimas to bury her. Then a lion approached St. Mary's body and licked her feet. The Elder ordered the beast to dig a hole with its claws, in which he devoutly placed the Saint's body.

Confession: Preparing our hearts for Easter

The goal and the culmination of the Christian life is the unity with the Trinitarian God of love for humanity. Therefore, God has made it possible for us to unite with him in this earthly life through the Eucharistic Communion. We as Christians are called to receive God under the appearance of bread and wine with water at each Divine Liturgy. We also call it the body and soul of Christ Himself.

Thus, all of us are called to keep our close connection with the living God, who communicates with each of us personally. As in any relationship there can be misunderstandings, quarrels, or misconduct, which are overcome through talking, self - awareness, and asking for forgiveness when necessary. Our loving God does not want us to feel bad even for our mistakes or sins. The Lord wants us to learn to live a good life feeling His love and trusting His all-encompassing divine providence. God gives us out of His great mercy a great gift of forgiveness, which can be experienced in confession. We are encouraged to improve our relationship with God each time we fail to maintain our friendship with Him.

Therefore, it is good to have regular confession: once every few weeks or by necessity. The sacred space of confession is not for judging! We do need to acknowledge our personal evil deeds and ask for the Lord's pardon. However, the main focus of confession is to receive God's healing for our soul, and our whole life. Especially in preparation for Easter we encourage parishioners to make a good confession in order to deeply prepare for the resurrection of our Lord Jesus and ours.

See you next Sunday at the Divine Liturgy and the great Lenten parish missions!!!

Сила молитви: як покаяння перетворює душу

Щороку 1 квітня та п'яту неділю Великого Посту Церква вшановує пам'ять преподобної Марії Єгипетської – святої, чий життєвий шлях є прикладом глибокого покаяння, духовного відродження та безмежної Божої любові.

Марія народилася в Єгипті та з ранньої юності поринула в гріховне життя, шукаючи лише тілесних насолод і розваг. Вона жила так протягом 17 років, аж поки доля не привела її до Єрусалима. Одного разу, бажаючи увійти до храму Воскресіння Христового, вона відчула незрозумілу силу, що не дозволяла їй переступити поріг святині. Саме тоді Марія усвідомила всю глибину свого падіння і в сльозах звернулася до Пресвятої Богородиці, благаючи про прощення та зміну свого життя. Після цього вона змогла увійти до храму і, приклонившись до Животворчого Хреста Господнього, вирушила в Йорданську пустелю.

Там, у самоті, пості та молитві, Марія прожила 48 років. Вона не мала нічого, окрім глибокої віри та прагнення до очищення. Її подвиг став символом того, що Боже милосердя не знає меж, а істинне покаяння може змінити навіть найбільшого грішника.

Життя Марії Єгипетської нагадує, що блуд – це не лише тілесний гріх, а й пристрасть до всього матеріального: багатства, слави, спокус світу цього. Людина легко потрапляє в тенета власних бажань, але кожен має шанс змінитися. Віра, смирення та молитва відкривають шлях до духовного оновлення.

Церква вшановує святу Марію Єгипетську під час Великого посту, особливо в п'яту неділю, як заклик до кожного: Господь приймає всіх, хто щиро кається. Її життєвий приклад свідчить, що будь-який гріх може бути подоланий силою віри та молитви, а любов Божа не залишає нікого.

Свята Маріє Єгипетська, моли Бога за нас!

Blessed Week!

Let's keep this simple. You're going to work, and you have a lot of work to do, so let's not pile on spiritual practices - just more stuff for you to do. It's not wise to add more minutes to a day already overflowing with them. So try three prayers, quick and to the point, and see if they help.

God my Creator, thanks for giving me work to do. When the project gets twisted up or when you think it will never end, or when the hours seem twice as long as they are, send up a prayer of thanks. You have work, and that's huge. You are employed. It's not a perfect job and it may not be a very good job, but all you must deal with is this day, and you are working.

Remind me, Holy Spirit, when my attitude veers off course. I can fume at others who make life hard or at the job itself, because it's a drudge or full of stress. But so much of that is outside my control. What I can focus on is myself. Am I in too big a hurry? Am I taking on stress that isn't even mine? Am I allowing a horrible commute to color the rest of the day? Am I allowing this person to push my buttons? Is my ego working overtime?

Walk with me, Jesus, and help me walk with my coworkers. Pope Francis has stressed that the Church must go outside itself to where people actually live and that priests and bishops must be out among the people, laboring beside them. When we walk alongside our colleagues - through whatever kind of day we have - we are following Jesus, and Jesus is walking there too.

What has helped you pray and work?

Pontifical Collection for the Church in the Holy Land on Good Friday, April 18, 2025

The annual Good Friday Collection is the only yearly request asked by the Holy See of dioceses and parishioners throughout the world. The collection helps the Church of the Holy Land to maintain Christian sites, so important for Christians everywhere, and to provide pastoral, educational, and social works among the small Christian population.

The Church and our Christian brothers and sisters count on your help to retain a faith filled Christian presence in this land of our Lord. Please give generously during your parish's Good Friday celebrations on April 18, 2025.

If you are unable to attend the service, it is possible to contribute online by going to Commissariat.ca/supporting-us and donating via CanadaHelps or Interac e-transfer. Receipts will be issued.

On behalf of the Franciscan Custody of the Holy Land, to whom the Holy See has entrusted this ministry for nearly 700 years, I sincerely thank you for your support.
